

Tier/Rank¹
Black Bille Empire c. 1995

¹ A Rank by Numbers (ex. R3 = Ranked 3rd in the Empire to become Pimplosseme).

² Fearing a family quarrel of retaining Pimplosseme status in the Empire upon the event of his death, Junior - in the sole interest of the organization in whole - thought it best to shift control to an Empirian's offspring, and requested that the child be a "she". Since there had been five females (with the exception of one) born into the Empire, and to avoid favoritism, Junior left it to the members to decide who would retain position under the understanding that two of the five votes had to be equal - the decision took twelve years after the organization had been renamed.

¹ In light of his decision to having a female head the Empire, Junior - in the sole interest of keeping the "Lucado" name existing in the Empire - shifts control of Pimp Underbosseme from his son Christoph Lucado to his grandson, Henry Church-Lucado who can only take position after the new Pimplosseme has taken theirs.

³ Does not condone the ethics of trafficking girls and/or boys under the age of seventeen for the purposes of sex.
